

THE WANDERING MIND NEEDS TO KNOW

Newsletter #Two

February, 2006

ARE YOU LIVING WHAT GOD WOULD WANT FOR YOU?

In a recent conversation I was having, the thought came to me that when I am worrying, afraid, living down to others expectations, unhappy, etc. to ask the question: Is this what God/Spirit (whatever name you use) intends for me?

Obviously if we ask this, the answer is “No.”

Why are you, then, living in a manner that has nothing to do with what God would want for YOU? And instead of spending many words on why this is so (which would all be excuses), I want to spend a few words on encouraging you to begin now to live what God intends for you. If your answer is that God wants you to suffer, then this isn't the right newsletter for you.

Ask yourself, “Is this job, home, financial situation, partnership, etc. the one God has intended for me?”

Watch how you answer-“Well no, but until I can find the right one, or go back to school, or save enough money, or, or, or.”

You see how this works? How we make excuses and step down from our greatness? Notice I said how we step down from our greatness? We don't step down from our greatness in God's eyes do we?

I think not.

No, your greatness is already there. If you don't think you are great and part of God/spirit's plan, it is only you who are in the way.

If you don't have all of what you want in your life, it is you who has turned down your greatness. And don't take my word for it. Quantum physics and many spiritual laws state that what you believe about yourself and the world is simply smiled back to you by the universe.

And all the bad feelings you have? They are just reminders that the direction you have chosen is not what your Spirit Greatness intends for you. So stop blaming others for this and start being accountable for living what God intends for you: unlimited source, substance and supply of all of what you want.

Thanks for listening, and the next time someone starts lamenting about their poor situation, ask them, "Do you think this is what God/spirit wants for you?" Then encourage them to put their energy towards what it is they do want.

LOVE TO YOUR SPIRIT GREATNESS,

STEVEN KEELER

www.stevenkeeler.com (will be updated soon)

Contact me: info@stevenkeeler.com

Upcoming events:

The calendar for 2006 is currently being assembled.

If you are interested in having Steven come to present for you, or work with your community or organization, please contact him via his email address.